

19th January 2020 Sanshodhan 3.0

The P.G. M.Com department of M.E.S College of Arts and Commerce, Zuarinagar organized a One Day Intercollegiate event Sanshodhan 3.0 on the theme “a dawn of creating new knowledge” for the M.Com colleges in Goa on 19th January 2020 in the college premises.. Sanshodhan is the third series of the event which first commenced in the year 2017-18, wherein the first two were purely state level seminar based on research paper presentation.

The event aimed at the holistic development of P.G. students in the areas of commerce, finance, and various contemporary issues. It was a fun learning process, encouraging students to showcase their creativity, think, act, perform, and speak.

The event was categorized into three categories namely platinum, gold and silver. Platinum comprised of only one prize, Gold had first and second prizes and Silver had first, second and third prizes.

The on-stage and off-stage competitions held include: Rationalize Your Thinking (Research Paper Presentation), Battle of the Brains (Quiz), Be Aware Be Informed (News Reporting), Be Innovator (Brain storming), Action Speaks Louder than Words (Mime Act), Skill & Creativity (Chart Making), Portray the Role (Role Play), A Face that has Stories to tell about Currency (Face Painting) and Documentary.

A team consisting of 10 students from eight colleges participated in the event with an accompanying faculty.

The chief guest for the inaugural function was Ms. Lalita P Joshi, Member of Managing Committee of Murgaoon Education Society. She emphasized on holistic development of students through participation in such events which have focused on contemporary issues taking place in the country, and she quoted on students being able to take Social Leadership.

Principal Dr. Rekha R Gaonkar welcomed the chief guest, dignitaries and participants for the inaugural function.

While the chief guest for the valedictory function was Associate Prof. B. V. Kolekar, Department of commerce, M.E.S College of Arts and commerce. He insisted on students participation in events is important as compared to winning the event.

M.Com Course Co-ordinator Dr. Champa R Parab proposed the vote of thanks at the valedictory function.

Vice Principal Dr Meenakshi Bawa gave the presidential address for the valedictory function.

The entire event was successfully managed and organised by the M.com students of the M.E.S College of Arts and Commerce, Zuarinagar.

The runners up for the event was St. Xaviers College and winners of Sanshodhan 3.0 was Government College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Quepem.

