

MES commemorates 76th Independence Day

M. E. S. College of Arts & Commerce, Zuarinagar, commemorated 75 years of independence today. Mr. Vishwanath Swar, Principal of the Higher Secondary section of MES was the Chief Guest on the occasion.

The programme began by the Principal of the College section welcoming the august gathering followed by the introduction and floral welcome of the Chief Guest. The students of the college and higher secondary sections rendered patriotic songs. The Chief Guest speaking on the occasion remarked that the youth were the driving force of the country; therefore they should work hard for the progress and welfare of the country. He also mentioned that more than gaining independence, it is important that everyone should preserve the hard won independence.

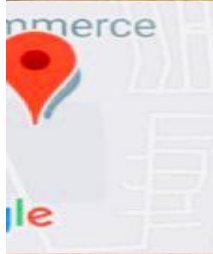

Earlier the NCC accorded the guard of honour while NSS volunteers were also present on the occasion. Former NCC cadets of the college participated in the celebrations and also rendered a special song.

Members of the faculty both teaching and non-teaching, college and higher secondary sections, NSS Programme Officers, NCC officers and Sports Department faculty took part in the culmination of the Azadi ka Amrit mahotsav celebrations.

Dr. Champa R. Parab welcomed the Chief Guest with a bouquet, the Vice-Principal introduced the Chief Guest while Dr. S. Susan Deborah compered the programme.
