Principal, Prof. Dr. Manasvi M. Kamat welcomed and addressed the gathering. She in her address discussed the following regarding academic, extra-curricular activities and code of conduct to be adhered by their wards:

- i. Graduation is stepping stone for further academic growth. Parents need to inculcate the spirit of waking up their children early so that they reach on time at 8.15 a.m. for the first lecture as 75% attendance and punctuality of their wards is important. All lectures start at 8.15 a.m. and finish by 12.35 p.m for first and second B.Com students, third year students have project lectures upto 1.35 p.m., except for extra-curricular activities and for N.S.S, N.C.C and sports.

- ii. The college has add on free courses for commerce students; namely; free certificate courses such as Tally GST, Income Tax return filing and personality development etc.
- iii. There is a Parents Teachers Association (P.T.A) of the college and Mrs. Shalaka Kamble is the President of the P.T.A of M.E.S college section.
- iv. The B.Com (CBCS) course consists of 6 semesters from First year B.Com to T.Y. B.Com. In the final year of B.Com Semester VI (T.Y.B.Com) students have to clear all the semesters from one to five. There are 20 marks for ISA's and 80 marks for semester end exam. Students have to compulsory answer two ISA's.
- iv. Parents should see that students pay the admission fees and upload the fee receipt on the DHE portal.
- v. There are various government schemes/scholarships students can apply via the college and avail the benefits for financial support to pay the fees. Parents were requested to convince their wards to apply for government schemes/scholarships.
- vi. The students should maintain discipline on the college campus, in the classroom and also while taking part in all the academic and extra-curricular activities.
- vii. Parents were advised to maintain cordial relationship with their children at home.
- ix. Every class of 60 students has two class mentors. There is one mentor for 30 students each and for the next 30 students there is another mentor who conduct mentor meetings once in the first week of every month where in the mentors monitor the attendance, academic performance and any another personal, non-personal difficulties faced by the student.
- x. She advised the parents to make sure that their wards dress modestly.
- xi. Principal assured the parents that the college will try its level best with the help of teachers to help them in their overall personality development and groom them as beautiful individuals. She also promised the parents that not to worry regards the security of their children and that they are in the safe hands of the teachers.
- xii. Principal requested the parents to check the updated websites of the college time and again.

Dr. Sancheliana Faria, Head Department of Commerce, also welcomed the parents and gave an overview of the commerce department, commerce association and activities related to the same.
